

Faiths for the City presents...

The NHS at 60: What do we Believe?

An Interfaith discussion

Wednesday 12 November, 1:30–4:30pm

University of Birmingham Medical School,
Vincent Drive, Birmingham B15 2TT

Including a performance of
'From Cradle to Grave'
celebrating the NHS at 60

Written and edited by Mandy Ross
Directed by Polly Wright

Workshops on

- Drug Prescribing and NICE
- Care of the elderly
- Conditions of work for NHS Staff

Speakers include

- Yunus Dudhwala, Newham University Hospital and Unite
- Prof. Robin Ferner, City Hospital
- Jim McManus, Director designate of Public Health, Birmingham

Learn more

Man Kaur or Joan Marks

0121 627 5737 ext 3437 / 0121 627 1627 ext 52599

or Lorraine Rigby at lorraine.rigby@uhb.nhs.uk

Chaplaincy@uhb.nhs.uk

(CPD points may be available)

www.faithsforthecity.org.uk

UNIVERSITY OF
BIRMINGHAM

HEARTH

UNISON
West Midlands

by Rail

The University is served by its own train station with up to 6 trains an hour running on the cross-city line between Lichfield and Redditch, via Birmingham New Street.

by Bus

Numbers 61, 62 and 63 travel to the University's Edgbaston campus with services running frequently from the city centre.

by Car

If travelling to this event by car please use the Vincent Drive Car Park as indicated on the map above. This is a pay and display car park and costs £1 per day

